P&C Meeting, Tuesday 2nd June, 7:30pm

Agenda
- 125th update
- Reports – uniforms, fund raising, tuckshop
- Principal’s Report – curriculum update, athletics, reporting, Term 3 plans
- General Business – items to P&C President / Principal prior to the meeting is always a good idea

Athletics Training

Students have been off to a great start with this year’s training running before school and then practising at lunch time. The carnival will be held early in term 3 at Kingaroy SS.

Year 6 Shirts

The shirts were very late arriving this year as the manufacturer had great trouble with the outsourcing of elements of the shirts, with some needing to be redone. She is very apologetic and has reduced the cost of the shirts. We thank her for her efforts.

The Whole-School Weekly Spelling Rule for next week is…

When the letter ‘a’ is followed by two consonants it may say ‘ar’ – eg. star, grasp, chart.

Aussies of the Month

The following students will be presented with an Aussie of the Month on Monday’s Assembly:- Emily Black, Noah Deed, Fritz Kutzer, Cheyanna Mifsid, Tia Bruce, Tatum Liflin, Amy Sempf, Nicholas Alexander, Kaidence Flood, Thomas Town, Noah George, Fidel Meams, Thomas Waring, Susan Blanch, Vivien Mollenhauer, Jessica Town, Bonnie Brunner and Royce Jensen. Aussie of the Month is a positive award for students who display all or some of the school’s Respect – self, others, things & places standard.

We congratulate these students and applaud their efforts.

Premier’s Reading Challenge

Students have been really enthusiastic with this year’s challenge. Several have already completed their 15 or 20 books. Students are challenged to keep recording their books for the duration of the challenge to see just how many books can be read.

How many can they read?

125th Planning

The committee is really interested in gathering as many “stories of past times at the school and the local area” as possible. These will be compiled into a document for use on the 125th. These stories will also be displayed around the school on the day.

Do you have any interesting stories or information to contribute?
