Website
Shortly, a number of key documents will be placed on the website, including the 2014 Booklist and Parent Handbook.

Year 7 Transition Day
Tuesday 12 November will be the small schools Transition Day at Wooroolin. This is an annual event where all small schools Yr7 students get together to think and talk about the many considerations in starting high school - socially, emotionally, academically and health wise.

Our Kingaroy District Small Schools Association arranges guest speakers (KSHS school nurse, Guidance Officer & CTC staff) to conduct specific sessions and provides morning tea and lunch for the students. These meals are generously prepared by the Wooroolin P&C.

Adopt-a-Cop Visit
School Adopt-A-Cop and parent, Luke Norris, visited classes this week. Luke completed a range of tasks such as talking to younger students about police and then with the older students linking the school behaviour code to the real world. The same expectations are part of school life and life in general.

We really appreciate Luke’s effort and visits.

Prep Orientation Morning
This week’s orientation morning was a very enjoyable experience for students and their parents. The students were really enthusiastic and Mrs P kept them on the go for the whole morning. Parents were informed about the many areas of school practice and culture by Mr J.

We thank Fiona Coyne for setting up the uniform shop and Tracey Schloss for helping Fiona arrange morning tea.

Lots of happy new mums and dads left our school – looking forward to 2014.
